

AQUARIUS

Spring brown Linseed

AQUARIUS
The high yielding and high oil content linseed

Earliness

Mid-early

Yielding

Very high, 111%

Sanitary profile

Very good

Oil content

Very high

* In comparison to the checks in Terres Inovia trials, 2024

Varietal Identity

TYPE — Spring Brown linseed

GENETIC TYPE — Inbred line

USE — Industry, animal and human food

REGISTRATION — EU

Technological Identity

OIL CONTENT*

44,2%,
HIGH

60,3%,
VERY HIGH

ALPHA-LINOLENIC ACID (ALA) CONTENT*

GRAIN COLOR

Brown

TKW

Medium : 6 g

* Terres Inovia Trials 2024

PRODUCT MANAGER'S OPINION

AQUARIUS is a mid-early variety with excellent yield potential (111% in the 2024 Terres Inovia trials) and a very high oil content, meeting industry expectations (referenced by Valorex).

Its strong agronomic performance positions AQUARIUS as a benchmark in the EU market.

Agronomical Identity

LOW QUITE LOW MEDIUM HIGH VERY HIGH

YIELDING

FLOWERING EARLINESS

Mid-early

MATURITY EARLINESS

Mid-early

HEIGHT

Medium to tall

LODGING

Low susceptibility

Sanitary Identity

SUSCEPTIBLE SLIGHTLY SUSCEPTIBLE MEDIUM MODERATELY RESISTANT RESISTANT

FUSARIUM

LEAF SCORCH

POWDERY MILDEW

Cultural Identity

- Seeding density :
 - Conventional: 650 to 800 kernels/m²
 - Organic: 1000 to 1200 kernels/m²
- Density target :
 - Conventional: 450 to 550 plants/m²
 - Organic: 550 to 650 plants/m²